

What California Independence Looks Like

12 ways California is already moving towards independence:

1. Withholding cooperation from the federal government
2. Nailing down current federal policies in state law
3. Creating our own parallel institutions
4. Protecting individual Californians from the federal government
5. Treating immigrants like Californians
6. Holding on to the autonomy we already have
7. Getting our public lands back
8. Joining the world
9. Making our own state government more effective
10. Replacing federal taxes with state ones
11. Having our day in court
12. Negotiating carve-outs and waivers
